This image shows a single page from a notebook. The page is framed by a thick, black, torn-paper-style border. At the top center, the word "Hermit" is written in a large, stylized, metallic-looking font. Below the title, the word "NOTES" is centered in a smaller, bold, black font. The rest of the page is filled with horizontal lines, providing space for writing. The overall aesthetic is that of a vintage or handmade journal.
